It is hereby Certified that the First Book of Records in the Town in many places was torn and defaced and in other places the Books and Deeds widely lost and in some places the month or year missing that all could not be perfectly recovered but they have been carefully examined and transcribed in this Book according as they appeared in the 1st Book.

Adams

Whereas we whose Names are under written being ordained to view and to determine upon the price of a peice of upland Lying on the East side of Black-brook: Which upland Capt-Adams took in within his Line: And it appeareth to be the Towns upland: We determine that Capt Adams shall pay to the Town Fifty Shillings: Always provided that the High-way over Black-brook on the farther side be twelve polls wide: and so the Land to Run on a streight Line to a spruce tree in the swamp: and so of a straight Line to a heap of stones: And so of a straight Line to a Great pine Marked with a Letter: A: And so East-to Billerica Line: as Witness our hands: Likewise the money is fully paid.
